Portsmouth Corporation Bus Routes to Leigh Park, 1949-2012

Introduction

Both CPPTD [Portsmouth City buses] and Southdown bus services started operating to Leigh Park on the same date of Sunday 29.5.1949.

The Southdown operating mainly service from Havant to Leigh Park, whilst the Corporation mainly operated the services from Portsmouth to Leigh Park, they in fact did not operate to Havant until the CD was redesignated 143 from Sunday 5th March 1961, when the 143A terminated at Havant Station.

It was not until the new time table of November 1981, that scheduled the 23 to operate via Havant bus station on outward journeys and inward journeys from Portsmouth.

Internal Leigh Park services operated by Southdown dwindled with the decline of passengers.

By the time of de-regulation in 1986, Southdown had operated hardly anything in Leigh Park, except for those CPPTD services worked jointly with Southdown to and from the City.

Southdown ran in competition with the CPPTD services, especially on the 23.

Stagecoach/Southdown took over all CPPTD services in 1989, thus Southdown reigned supreme in Leigh Park.

Stagecoach converted the Leigh Park services to single deck buses, after a short interval with double-deck buses, now operating a 10-minute service 23 off peak, with 20/21 operating a 15-minute service within Leigh Park, and route splitting in Purbrook Road, with 21 going to Portsmouth Via Eastern Road, whilst 20 proceeded to Crookhorn and QA, then Stamshaw to Gunwharf Keys. There was a short lived extension to Canoe Lake via Albert Road.

This account is not an exhaustive account of Southdown service in Leigh Park.

Leigh Park bus routes map dated October 1985.

It should be noted that from 24th February 1985 services 22, 24 & 24A were operated jointly between Southdown and Portsmouth City Transport, on the basis of alternate journeys.

From October 1986 the government's deregulation of the nation's bus networks took effect from 27th October 1986. From that date the Joint Transport between these two operators ceased.

Deregulation brought about a free for all, with different operators competing for the same services, in fact Southdown eventually also operated the 23 services to Leigh Park on a 20-minute service as 323.

After a brief period when Southampton City Bus took over Portsmouth City Bus 1988-1989, Stagecoach/Southdown took over from December 1989. Stagecoach took over the PCB operation from 23rd January 1990.

Stagecoach continues to operate the Leigh Park service to this day. [2015].

The 23 operates more or less as in PCT days, and 21 likewise, service 22 was discontinued later and a new service 20 instituted to Gunwharf Quays Via QA, operating alternatively with the 21 to Gunwharf Quays via Eastern Road. The 20 operated via M275 from QA, until 5.1.2015 when it operated to and from QA via Cosham and Stamshaw.

Time table for Southdown competing service with PCT 23-24:

CODE KEY: SO - Saturdays Only

Services 24/25 are operated under contract to Hampshire County Council

Service 24-25 was a new service started to operate from 22.1.1990.

From 5th November 1989 service 53/54 was altered as per time tables below:

*35-The Journal, Thursday, January 11 1990

SOUTHDOWN PORTSMOUTH

Late in 1989, the separate Southdown and Portsmouth City Bus companies combined their Hampshire area bus services into one operation now known as SOUTHDOWN PORTSMOUTH. The new organization forms part of the Stagecoach Group, whose companies also operate bus services in several other parts of the country.

Starting 22 January, the public will see the first results of the reorganization when a complete new network of bus services throughout the area will be introduced. Full details of the new services are shown in this booklet.

The familiar red Portsmouth City Bus (together with its Red Admiral subsidiary) and green Southdown vehicles will gradually disappear, to be replaced by a brighter, more attractive colour scheme, predominantly white with three colourful stripes.

Hants & Sussex had to vacate their premises in Emsworth in 1993, they established a temporary base at a former Garage filling station in Leigh Park on the corner of Dunsbury Way and Bramdean drive by January 1994.

Blow shows route map for 27 from 9.9.1996. Although flagged as Hants & Sussex, it looks like Southampton Citybus type caricature.

It is believed that Southampton CityBus bought out Hants & Sussex in 1996, but were then forced to sell to Emsworth & District who took over the 27, after Citybus relinquished it about 1997. Emsworth & District continued to operate the 27 until February 2015, when First bus took over the route, and was cut back to operate Emsworth Havant, Leigh Park, Park Parade, Dunsbury Way, Middle Park Way to Rowlands Castle, the Prospect Farm section being deleted.

Joint agreement between CPPTD and Southdown mileage make-up

The 1946 agreement between Southdown and CPPTD called for mileage agreement of 57% to CPPTD and 43% to Southdown, if one exceeded their mileage limit percentage they loaned their buses to make it up.

So see below three CPPTD on local Havant to Leigh Park services in the early 1950s.

Dunsbury Way closure Monday 15th June to 19th June 2015.

This busy road catering for 32 buses per hour served by services 20, 21, 23 and 39 was closed from Bramdean Drive to Park Parade Roundabout to enable the road to be scarified and resurfaced by HCC.

Services 20, 21 and 23 diverted to operate via Bramdean Drive and Botley Drive to Purbrook Way, not serving Park Parade at all, one of the busiest stops on Leigh Park.

Service 39 diverted to operate the full length of Botley Drive, then left into Purbrook Way to Park Parade roundabout and normal route to and from Havant.
